DRESS CODE:

We ask that campers observe a modest dress code at all times. Because of camp activities, we recommend clothes that you don't mind getting dirty. Campers must wear modest one-piece swimming suits (tankinis, where there are no gaps between the top and bottom are acceptable). Shorts and pants should be suitable for recreation (i.e. running, climbing, sitting comfortably on the ground). They should not be overly tight (i.e. leggings) or short (rule of thumb: the bottom of shorts' hem should meet finger tips with arms held straight at sides). Shirts should be suitable for recreation and not be revealing or too tight. Spaghetti strap tank tops, shirts that bare the midriff and/or show cleavage are NOT permitted. Clothing with wording or images contrary to Christian principles, or wording of any kind across the back of shorts/pants may not be worn. Campers will be instructed to change if any attire is questionable.

Fancy Dinner: campers and staff have the opportunity to dress up for dinner on Friday. Anything tasteful that is in line with the guidelines above is acceptable. Guys often wear suits, girls like to wear prom-style dresses.

Clash and Goofy Night: campers and staff dress up the goofiest way possible. Creative silliness is key. We have seen everything from special costumes to clashing attire.

Special outfits for these nights are not mandatory, but a lot of fun!

CONDUCT:

All campers are expected to act in ways appropriate to a Christian camp. Campers are responsible to respect one another and the staff, and to protect and respect the environment and the camp facilities. This includes keeping the grounds litter-free and graffiti-free. Any and all property damage will be charged to the offending parties and their families. While all disciplinary action will be taken to attempt resolution on site, the Program Director and the Executive Director reserve the right to dismiss campers for major violation of camp rules. Parents are responsible for arranging and covering the costs for their child's early departure.

PLEASE LEAVE AT HOME:

Cell phones, CD/DVD players, iPod/MP3 players, radios, video games, computers or tablets, tobacco, lighters, alcohol, drugs, knives, guns (toy or real) or weapons of any kind are not permitted on our camp grounds. Please leave such items at home. These objects will be confiscated for the week if discovered in a camper's possession.

VISITATION POLICY:

To ensure maximum safety and security for our campers and staff, we do not permit visitors during the camp week. Family members are welcome to join us for Closing Circle at 7:00 p.m. on Friday (or Wednesday for Family Camp). In the event of a family emergency, please contact the Camp Office at 215-679-5144. You may stop by the Camp Office during regular office hours (Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.) to drop off forgotten items.

STAYING IN TOUCH:

We encourage you to send your camper mail at: 1415 Doerr Rd. Quakertown PA 18951, or email at camper.menolan@gmail.com. Please indicate camper's name & cabin on envelope or in the email's subject line. You can follow your camper's week at Camp on our Facebook page.

SPECIAL DIET:

Please contact us if your child has special dietary needs. We will do our best to cooperate with you in making your camper's stay safe and enjoyable.

PEANUT FREE:

For the safety of those campers with severe peanut allergies, Men-O-Lan is a 'peanut free' facility. Therefore, no products containing peanuts should be brought or sent to camp, i.e. peanut butter sandwiches, candy, granola bars, etc.

LOST AND FOUND:

Every lost item that is not labeled with the camper's name will be collected and put on display during pick up time. Please swing by and claim your child's missing belongings. Lost and found clothes, towels and other useable objects will be held until the end of the summer, then they will be donated. Camp Men-O-Lan is not responsible for any lost or stolen items.

PHOTOS AND VIDEOS:

Camp Men-O-Lan has designated staff members who take pictures and videos throughout the summer. These may be used for marketing and promotion purposes. Campers may appear, but will not be named, in photos, on social media or in videos.
