EXPECTATIONS BY CORE VALUES

CARING

Our program leaders demonstrate with their actions and words that they truly care about the spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional well-being of each camper and do their best to involve them in age-appropriate activities that fits the campers' abilities.

NURTURING

Our program leaders nurture our campers by leading high quality, meaningful activities. They help campers grow and experience a sense of success by accomplishing or creating something they haven't been able to do before.

RESPECTFUL

With every word and action our program leaders show respect to campers, staff, parents, and themselves, and express that they love and honor Jesus.

COOPERATIVE

Our program leaders work as a team. They have the campers' best interest at their heart so they work closely with counselors who assist them. They communicate promptly with camp leadership regarding events, programs, and weekly schedule.

FUN

Our program leaders enjoy what they do and their joy is contagious to campers and fellow staff. The activities they plan are fun and engaging, so campers don't hesitate to join in.

EXCELLENT

Our program leaders demonstrate creativity, innovation, and they go the extra mile. In completing every task they aim for excellence to represent our excellent God.

SAMPLE LIST OF TASKS

Our Artistic Activity Program Leader plans, pre-tests and leads individual, high quality, creative, age appropriate, and diverse craft sessions for campers of various ages and group sizes multiple times a day. They ensure camper safety at all times. They arrange samples or photos of projects in the Craft Binder. They create sets, costumes, and decoration for camp events. They keep craft areas clean and orderly every day and handle camp equipment with care. They keep written inventory of craft materials online and anticipate and communicate needs in advance. They clean up and winterize the Craft Pavilion at the end of the camp season. They complete any other tasks at camp if needs arise.
