

5 STEPS TO A HAPPY

EXPERIENCE

COMPLETE REGISTRATION

- Provide the correct contact info: email and cell phone #.
- Fill out the 3 mandatory forms: Disclaimer, Health, and Camper Profile.
- Save your camper's spots by paying the non-refundable deposit right away. Pay the balance on time: no later than 2 weeks prior to the session.
- Stay up to date by reading emails and texts from Camp.

PREPARE WELL

- Read the packing list (CMOL Playbook), and pack accordingly.
- Check your camper's bags for items NOT allowed at Camp.
- Create KidCheck account for electronic check-in and check-out.
- Talk to your camper about their upcoming experience, what they are looking forward to, and expectations while at Camp.

KidCheck

HEALTH POLICIES

- Medications brought by campers must be in original container, labeled with camper's name, listed on their health form, and handed to the Camp Nurse or camp leadership.
- If a camper shows signs of illness, guardians will be notified and asked to pick up the camper.

BEHAVIORAL POLICIES

- Camp's 3 T's: safe Touch, safe Talk, safe Territory. Every effort will be made to work with campers with various levels of development as well as personal maturity and abilities to meet these expectations.
- If behaviors that prevent others from having fun persist, or a camper displays behavior harmful to themselves or others, Camp Men-O-Lan reserves the right to immediately suspend the camper.

STAY CONNECTED

- Read camp emails and texts.
- Look at camp photos. They will be uploaded to Google Photos. You will receive a link via email or text each week.
- Overnight Camp: email your camper through their registration account, or drop off a small package while they are here.
